

The National Deaf Children's Society proudly presents...

Let's Get Quizzical!

Could your business change the lives of deaf children? From history buffs to general knowledge geniuses. From pub quiz regulars to trivia first timers. The National Deaf Children's Society needs you!

Get down and quizzical and show your competitive side while raising the vital funds needed to create a world without barriers for all deaf children.

There are around 50,000 deaf children in the UK. Bullied for being different, too many deaf children grow up isolated and lonely. But together we can change lives.
