Suggestions from groups on what helps make for a happy and effective committee:

How does your group demonstrate some of these suggestions? If not, do you think you’d like to introduce them into your group if possible?

- More sociable events for committee members, including pizza/curry nights.
- Reflecting on events and activities as a committee.
- Welcoming new committee members, ensuring smooth transition. Shadowing committee roles promotes sustainability for the groups.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- Involving a youth member.
- Democratic – everyone has a voice and involved in key decisions and open to new ideas.
- Having clear and defined roles.
- Governing documents and policies are in place, and all members are aware of them.
- Keep things simple.
- Creativity and imagination.
- Having a Teacher of the Deaf on the committee.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- More sociable events for committee members, including pizza/curry nights.
- Reflecting on events and activities as a committee.
- Welcoming new committee members, ensuring smooth transition. Shadowing committee roles promotes sustainability for the groups.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- Involving a youth member.
- Democratic – everyone has a voice and involved in key decisions and open to new ideas.
- Having clear and defined roles.
- Governing documents and policies are in place, and all members are aware of them.
- Keep things simple.
- Creativity and imagination.
- Having a Teacher of the Deaf on the committee.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- More sociable events for committee members, including pizza/curry nights.
- Reflecting on events and activities as a committee.
- Welcoming new committee members, ensuring smooth transition. Shadowing committee roles promotes sustainability for the groups.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- Involving a youth member.
- Democratic – everyone has a voice and involved in key decisions and open to new ideas.
- Having clear and defined roles.
- Governing documents and policies are in place, and all members are aware of them.
- Keep things simple.
- Creativity and imagination.
- Having a Teacher of the Deaf on the committee.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- More sociable events for committee members, including pizza/curry nights.
- Reflecting on events and activities as a committee.
- Welcoming new committee members, ensuring smooth transition. Shadowing committee roles promotes sustainability for the groups.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- Involving a youth member.
- Democratic – everyone has a voice and involved in key decisions and open to new ideas.
- Having clear and defined roles.
- Governing documents and policies are in place, and all members are aware of them.
- Keep things simple.
- Creativity and imagination.
- Having a Teacher of the Deaf on the committee.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- More sociable events for committee members, including pizza/curry nights.
- Reflecting on events and activities as a committee.
- Welcoming new committee members, ensuring smooth transition. Shadowing committee roles promotes sustainability for the groups.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- Involving a youth member.
- Democratic – everyone has a voice and involved in key decisions and open to new ideas.
- Having clear and defined roles.
- Governing documents and policies are in place, and all members are aware of them.
- Keep things simple.
- Creativity and imagination.
- Having a Teacher of the Deaf on the committee.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- More sociable events for committee members, including pizza/curry nights.
- Reflecting on events and activities as a committee.
- Welcoming new committee members, ensuring smooth transition. Shadowing committee roles promotes sustainability for the groups.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- Involving a youth member.
- Democratic – everyone has a voice and involved in key decisions and open to new ideas.
- Having clear and defined roles.
- Governing documents and policies are in place, and all members are aware of them.
- Keep things simple.
- Creativity and imagination.
- Having a Teacher of the Deaf on the committee.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- More sociable events for committee members, including pizza/curry nights.
- Reflecting on events and activities as a committee.
- Welcoming new committee members, ensuring smooth transition. Shadowing committee roles promotes sustainability for the groups.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- Involving a youth member.
- Democratic – everyone has a voice and involved in key decisions and open to new ideas.
- Having clear and defined roles.
- Governing documents and policies are in place, and all members are aware of them.
- Keep things simple.
- Creativity and imagination.
- Having a Teacher of the Deaf on the committee.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- More sociable events for committee members, including pizza/curry nights.
- Reflecting on events and activities as a committee.
- Welcoming new committee members, ensuring smooth transition. Shadowing committee roles promotes sustainability for the groups.
- Having a broad range of ages, abilities, hearing loss in membership and the skill set within the committee to meet needs of these families.
- Involving a youth member.
- Democratic – everyone has a voice and involved in key decisions and open to new ideas. How does your group demonstrate some of these suggestions? If not, do you think you’d like to introduce them into your group if possible?